

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

A covering or trim part includes an injection molding compound and a decor part durably connected with the molding compound. The decor part may contain a real-wood veneer as well as a metal part. The covering a trim part is made by combining an injection molding operation with a cutting operation of the decor part in the injection. A multi-part injection mold permits more complicated molding and undercutting and/or the forming of variable wall thicknesses.